

Second Round of Corrections for

6/11/2024 Awards

This correction is due to a person putting multiple posting numbers on one application. We waited to enter them because it is supposed to be one job on one application with your priority in the box at the top left corner. We entered these into the computer because Labor accepted them on one application. We have new people in Labor and we have shown them the proper applications procedure. The system quit accepting applications at the end and booted the applications out. With the amount of job postings, we have and people putting in multiple applications a correction creates a trickle effect that affects multiple postings. Again, we apologize for the corrections and the timing. We didn't get this information until this morning, so we waited to see if there were any more corrections.

Posting 1391- Which was corrected yesterday and awarded to Sarah Whitney is now not being awarded to Sarah. The posting is now being awarded Leonel Valle.

Posting 1396- Which was originally awarded to Eric Arden is now being awarded to Sarah Whitney.

Posting 1397- Which was originally awarded to Ryan Newman is now being awarded to Eric Arden. Ryan Newman put in for one other posting but was beat by seniority. Ryan Newman has his posting rights back and can post today through Tuesday at Noon.
